Florence → Siena · Day trip

Stay in Florence and spend the day in Siena. Choose your outward and return journeys first, then make room for a walk, one main visit and a café pause.

route

Before you start

From the station, escalators through Porta Siena lead to Antiporto di Camollia; the walk into the centre continues from there. Escalators do not guarantee a step-free route. Check access if stairs are a concern.

Route steps

1 Before leaving Florence
Choose both journeys and check the return stop. Leave time to reach it; avoid making the last service your only option.

2 Arrive and find your starting point
Use the arrival guide, then open Siena in one day. Adjust its starting point to your actual bus stop, station or car park.

3 Explore with a pause
Follow the city walk and choose a café. Add a cathedral visit only if its opening times and tickets fit your return journey.

4 Return to Florence
Finish with enough time to reach your departure point. Recheck the service notices and the boarding location.

Choose your transport

Bus

Check Autolinee Toscane line 131R and the stops for your service. Some departures use Via Orti Oricellari outside Florence’s bus station; verify the boarding point before leaving.

Train

Search Firenze Santa Maria Novella → Siena and check any changes. Siena station is about 2 km from the centre, so allow a separate stage for reaching the old town.

Car

Route to a car park before walking into the centre. Santa Caterina on Via Esterna di Fontebranda is one option with nearby escalators. Check availability and ZTL access with your accommodation.

Adjust your plan

Leaving late

Keep the Campo, one main visit and a pause. Check your return time before adding another stop.

Rain

Choose one indoor visit and a café nearby. Check the guide for opening hours and tickets.

Luggage

Arrange storage with your accommodation before travelling. Do not build a long walk around unconfirmed luggage storage.

Less energy

Skip optional climbs and viewpoints. Work out a comfortable way back to your transport or accommodation first.
