Why stop here

The café sits at the entrance to the courtyard of Palazzo Chigi Saracini. It is a good choice when a pause can be part of the cultural day: a drink, the courtyard atmosphere and a change of pace after the cathedral.

A useful visit

Use it between the cathedral and the Campo, or as an early-evening stop when the current opening hours suit your plans.

What to consider

For music, reserve according to the specific event information. Ask about seating and entrance access if you need a guaranteed seated or step-free break.
